-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 1 is not clear because it recite a “body” portion and a “storage compartment”. The examiner is not clear how they are distinguish and the support in the specification for both elements. The claims are rejected as best understood by the examiner. Claim 3 is not clear. Which drawing best describes this limitation? Further the preamble recite a “stapler”, yet there is nothing in the body of the claim to support this recitation.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-2, 5, 6, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Santos (US Patent 4,635,634). The Santos patent discloses the substantially as recited. Santos limitations include the following;

- a stapler having a body portion 70;
- a handle extending downwardly from the body, said handle having a curved portion adapted to fit the palm of the user hand;
- a proximal extension 12 extending rearwardly proximate of the juncture of the body and handle.

Art Unit: 3731

A user hand is capable of resting their index finger and thumb against the body.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-2 and 5-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wright (US Patent 4,777,948) or Roberts et al (US Patent 3,669,487). Applicant's claims are broadly interpreted to include any handle grip since nothing in the apparatus claims or method steps that limit it to a stapler. It would have been within the purview of one having ordinary skill in the art to grasp either of the above references in the manner recited in claims 12 and 13. It further would have been to utilize the hand-grip of Wright or Roberts et al on a stapling device.
